Dear Customer:

You are hereby notified that all properties and bank accounts standing in your name at this bank have been levied against by the Franchise Tax Board in the amount of $32,187.09 not including banks service charge fee of $35.00.

To protect all parties, we have held funds from the following accounts:

#75050 [REDACTED] - $5,641.90                      #125008 [REDACTED] - $1,117.25

and deposited them into a special holding account. As required by law, we must hold these funds or property and disposition pursuant to the writ or order served upon us, unless you take immediate and appropriate steps to prevent the same.

We regret this notification and action and trust you will obtain whatever legal advice or assistance, which may be required under the circumstances.

Sincerely,

Shirley Rainwater
